

Zoho Creator is a Software as a Service (SaaS) platform because it allows users to build, manage, and use applications directly through a web browser without installing software on their computers. Zoho hosts the application, manages updates, security, backups, and maintenance on its cloud servers. Users simply sign in with an internet connection and access their applications from anywhere. This subscription-based, cloud-hosted model is a key characteristic of SaaS.